Chamber Employee Reads for Tots and Tales

Brandy Crocker, Community Information Specialist for the Smithfield-Selma Chamber of Commerce, shares Where The Wild Things Are with Sienna Hocutt while sister, Fiona, creates her own monster story with markers and finger paints at Tots and Tales. Tots and Tales is an early literacy program for families with young children offered by the Partnership for Children in the Early Learning Resource Center – 1406-A S. Pollock St, Selma, on the second Friday of every month. The Early Learning Resource Center provides resources to families and community partners to support the development of young children. Call 202-0002 for more information.
