Allen Wellons Recognized for Service to Young Children

Partnership for Children Board Chair Chris Key and Executive Director Dr. Dwight Morris present Allen Wellons with an engraved clock in appreciation for more than 10 years of service to the young children of Johnston County. The inscription on the clock reads "Time Well Spent". Wellons was instrumental in the development of the Partnership for Children of Johnston County - the lead agency for bringing community partners together to provide our children the best early care and education system in North Carolina. For more information about the Partnership for Children of Johnston County or to find out how you can get involved, call 202-0002 or visit www.pfcjc.org.
