Outback Steakhouse Donates Proceeds from Sold Out Luncheon

JOHNSTON COUNTY – AUGUST 21, 2009 –

Proprietor, Eric Knott, the Outback Steakhouse staff, and community leaders served to a packed house during two sold out lunchtime seatings and raised $4000 during the Partnership for Children Steak Luncheon last week. The money will be used to improve the health, education and emotional well-being of Johnston County children. Pictured from left to right are: Dr. Dwight Morris, Butler Hall, Charles Hester, Will Crocker, Jody McLeod, Norman Johnson and Don Rains. For more information on Partnership for Children of Johnston County programs and services for children, visit www.pfcjc.org or call 202-0002.
